These atrocious sentiments are becoming more and more common among the followers of Pen- Attorney General D. E. W. dleton and McClellan. They are the natural offspring of the Chicago Platform.

It is the continued as well as vigorous prose- Supreme Judger .. ention of the war which is necessary to suppress the Rebellion.

"An interruption of the war is as good as a surrender," agreed the conspirators at Niagara Palls. They were right. The war once intersupted by agreement would never be resumed.

Peace through success is Union. Peace through surrender is Disunion.

Hon, WILLIAM M. HIESTER of Reading, Pa. b life-long Democrat, who was Secretary of Governor. State under Gen. Packer, having been nominated for Congress in old Berks, by the Unionfets, responded as follows:

"GENTLEMEN: I have been apprised of your nomination by the departation who have waited upon me. As I understand it, such nomination has not proceeded from you either as Republican or Democrat, but from you as a Union Convention—from the good and troe men of all parties, who are received to maintain and perpetuate that Union which we all hold most dear—of men who are determined to crash out a wicked Rebelion, and to let our glorious banner once nore was found to let our glorious banner once nore were found to let our glorious banner once nore were found to let our glorious banner once nore were found and laceguit, and hold war to be a calamity, with all its attendant blessings, and hold war to be a calamity, with all its direful consequences, yet I am not for such a peace. We was proposed by the traitorous band at Niagara. War hus been waged against us, not by the much abused Abolitionists, who never raised their voice or took possession of any of our ferits, or aided in the overthrow of the best government on earth, but by Soothern men whose only object has been to dissolve that Union for the first bled and died. In the struggle of the such as a such as which our forefathers bled and died. In the struggle, its maintenance, every much has an interest at stake, in integrity of our Union we are all alike interested, if the renomination of our President, Abraham Lincowe have a duty to perform, and an honor to sustain, which history will bear the record.
